

Madeline Island Marathon and Half Marathon COVID-19 (novel coronavirus) Statement
March 23, 2020

The 2020 Madeline Island Marathon and Half Marathon are cancelled. For the past 9 days, we have held the sincere hope that by May 16, things would be returning to normal and the race go on as planned. We are runners and it breaks our hearts, but the decision is now out of our hands.

We know many of you are hurting like we are, not just emotionally, but financially, and while we have a “No Refund” policy, we want to do the best we can to help. We are in a different position than many of our fellow running events. Like all races, we have upfront costs, but some of our major expenditures haven’t been made yet which will allow us to bend our policy and present options. We are finalizing those options and will be sending another communication in the next couple of days.

The running and event world have been turned upside down, but we will be back in 2021 and we hope you will too.

Please be safe and healthy,
Brian, Alyssa, and Grace
